Prigo' Mint
Class of 1951
Bremen, Indiana.

Maria

As a beginning to this, the 1951 edition of the Sprig O' Mint, we Seniors want to thank our teachers for keeping us in the swim for the past twelve years. As we are about to leave our high school days we look back with thanks in our hearts for the patience and helpfulness which our teachers have consistently shown. We feel that our teachers are worthy of this dedication and that future teachers will continue to uphold the standards which have been set up for them.

SENIORS

On a warm September afternoon in 1938, twenty-four squirming little sea serpents wiggled into the brand new Bremen Aquarium. We were Rolland Aker, Paul Bailey, Marilyn Forsythe, Dave Bowser, Evelyn Boyer, Junior Elliott, Eugene Dutoi, Bill Frenger, Fred Haas, Willie Hochstetler, Glenice Jensen, Frank Jones, Nettie Keyser, Lowell Kuhn, Marlene Layman, Herb Leeper, Frank Roberts, Glen Scott, Jay Senff, Ted Swank, Tonia Tombaugh, Jim Unsicker, Windy Walterhouse, and Jack Zillmer.

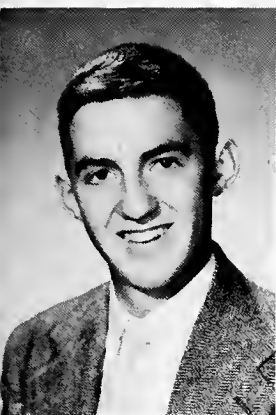

The next year Linc Wolfe joined us. Our third year a few more wiggled in. Lucy Carrico and Shirley Muncy came from South Bend, and from the twin city, Mishawaka, came Bob Hall. Wakarusa gave us Dotti Heckaman. In the fourth grade Barbara Ruger slipped in from Michigan, and Charlie Sult came from Grovertown in the fifth grade. Then during our sixth year Carolyn Aukerman arrived here from Laporte. Bob Myers came in the seventh grade and in the eighth grade we received another Mishawaka fish when Kenny Crowel swam into our midst.

In our first big splash at the Aquarium for Big Fish, in plunged Millie Weber, Martha Mutti, Louie Bollenbacher, and Phyl Thomas from the Lutheran School. Tom Smith dropped in from Elkhart later on that year. In our tenth year Wayne Schlemmer jumped in from Madison and Mount Ayer tossed us Leonard Stichter.

After a fairly successful magazine sales campaign and a hectic Junior Play, "Here Comes Charlie" (Hey, Uncle Alec!!), we had acquired a chestful of pirate's gold which was enough to finance the Prom. Kenny Crowel and Glenice Jensen were the official rulers of the Prom which was held in our own home port. Our Senior play "Nothing But the Truth," was postponed several times so we poor fish are still in the dark about it. Several of us have worked hard trying to make this Sprig just a little better. Now we ore a big school of fish with 41 of us "perched" on our careers.

HONOR STUDENTS

WHEN WE WERE JUNIORS

Kenny Crowel

Glenice Jensen

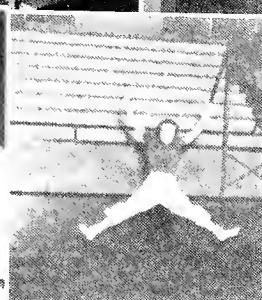

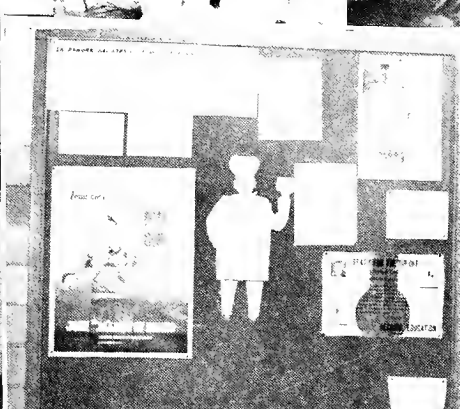

Although our Junior year wasn't as busy as our Senior year, we kept busy with the prom and the play. Our prom, which was held in the gym on May 6, 1950, revolved around a wishing well in the center of the gym and a small white picket fence separated the dance floor from the tables. The music was by the Tap-Hats, an excellent orchestra from South Bend and Kenny and Glenice were elected by our class as king and queen.

The play HERE COMES CHARLIE was a hilarious comedy with Kenny and Glenice playing the leading roles. Jay did a good job as Uncle Alec with a hill billy accent and a "bailed" shirt. Junior, as Kenny's best friend, generally got himself into difficulties with Kenny's aunt, Eunice Neusus. Dot's brood, Ted and Martha, were about the snootiest of the lot until Ted fell in love with Glenice. Windy managed to find a cop's uniform big enough for him and Maria had an Irish accent for weeks afterwards, but the play was a good one and everyone had a wonderful time presenting it. Miss Terwilliger directed the production.

SPRIG O' MINT

Spring O' Mint work progresses slowly, if at all! The editor, Dot, spent the best part of her senior year worrying, wondering, and warring. Kenny and Windy collected donations from generous businessmen and handled the sales. After Shirley and Frank had advertised our books, we all sold them to susceptible underclassmen. (One soph even got two!) Miss Irion wrote innumerable letters and answered innumerable questions. Ted and Wayne drew so many fish they nearly learned to swim in the process. Link developed a chronic wink from taking so many pictures. Maria, (who got stuck with whatever no one else wanted) Martha, and the rest of Mr. Replogle's 6th period study hall cut, posted, and mounted pictures. Willie and Martha wrote stories for the classes while Jeanette collected data on the elementary grades. Somehow amid the stalling and conflicts of mid-year, Eugene, Bob, and Marlene wrote their stories and identified their groups for the activities in school. They finished just in time, too, because another of the inevitable deadlines was staring us right in the face. Phyl dug up information about the basketball games and Scottie wrote the bit on baseball. Glenice and Junior concocted the most delightful poetry about seniors, arranged a poll to find out who's who in the senior class, and dedicated our most precious possessions to our various friends. Tonia, Barbara, and Carolyn typed the finished products. It was hard work—but fun!

First row: G. Scatt, D. Soales, B. Robinson, A. Molebash, S. Laudeman, G. Bellman, R. VanGilder. Second row: Mr. Kaantz, J. Kaantz, W. Hochstetler, W. Walterhouse, B. Oberly, J. Senff. Third row: F. Sahlhaff, J. Zillmer, F. Haas, P. Thornton, L. Walfe, B. Mummey.

The Hi-Y started the year in a big way by having the Hi-Y District Conference here at Bremen in October. They obtained enough money from their annual project of selling basketball pencils to have a swimming party in January and a Best Girl Dinner-Dance in February. And to top off the year, six senior boys received their sweaters.

The girls contributed gifts to make Thanksgiving boxes for the hospital and had a wonderful time carolling at Christmas. The organization is selling (to enlarge the slightly dwindling funds) salt water taffy. Tri-Hi-Y, in connection with Hi-Y, is trying to make our own community a better place in which to live.

The band is always one of the first organizations to get started at the opening of a new term. Band interest is high because of their numerous activities, concerts, and contests. One of their foremost activities of the year was the Band Boosters Drive. The members went from house to house soliciting funds for the band. Several students were given an excellent opportunity when a merchant permitted them to work for him and to take the profits of the day for the band.

The band participated in Indiana University's annual All High School Band Day in November. It was a great experience for all of them and one which will be remembered. Contests start in late winter and continue into early spring. Rivalry is intense among the competing bands for the honor of having an A rating. Our band has consistently placed high in both district and state contests.

Each year students are given awards which they have earned on the merit system. A special award will be given to Louise Haney this year in recognition of her outstanding performance. Marlene Layman and Verna Palmer have earned their 4-bar chevron; Jane Mayer, 3-bar chevron; Sue Swank and Janet Schmitt, 2-bar chevron; Lenore DeFauw, Berdine Heckaman, Nancy Keyser, Lowell Kuhn, Shirley Long, Rosemary Mutti, Marsha Robinson, and Jo Sherland, 1-bar chevron. Lyres will be awarded to Evelyn Corl, Pat Ellis, Loren Felten, Mary Floro, Alon Molebash, Joyce Widmar, and Karel Klinedinst.

The pest contest got under way in November and has been quite successful. After their $\frac{5}{8}$ of an acre of corn had grown, the boys took time out to shuck it. All in all, the F. F. A. has enjoyed the year.

BREMEN 45—WASHINGTON CLAY 57 In the season opener, the Lions went down to defeat at the hands of the Clay Colonials by a 57—45 score. It was a well-played game by the Lions with captain Kenny Crowel leading the scoring with 18 points.

BREMEN 44—CONCORD 48 The Lions were again defeated by a fighting Concord team. The outcome was still in doubt with three minutes left in the fourth quarter. High scoring honors were held by Kenny Crowel with 18 points and Captain Junior Elliott with 11 points.

BREMEN 38—BOURBON 53 In a wild and wooly ball-game that saw Arch, Crowel, and Elliott fouling out, the Comets beat the Lions by a 53—38 score. High point men were Drof with 10 points and Arch with 7.

BREMEN 37—SYRACUSE 53 Crowel with 17 points and Elliott with 7 wasn't quite enough to keep their team up with the fighting Syracuse five.

BREMEN 44—MADISON 69 The Lions couldn't stop Jack Schmeltz and Co. and were dropped to their fifth defeat of the season. Schmeltz had 27 points while Elliott with 14 and Laudeman with 10 led the Lions.

BREMEN 43—ROCHESTER 51 Elliott and Laudeman again led the scoring with 16 and 11 points respectively as the Rochester Zebras won a tight 51—43 ballgame.

BREMEN 41—LaPAZ 64 Laudeman took over the leading scorer's position with 13 points with Elliott and Crowel close behind with 10 points each. The latter two both fouled out.

BREMEN 27—KENDALVILLE 60 The eighth defeat of the season was handed the Lions by a tough Kendalville team. High point men were Arch with 7 and Crowel with 6.

BREMEN 33—WAKARUSA 44 The Luckless Lions lost again, this time to the Wakarusa Indians. We just didn't have quite enough power in the last few minutes. Elliott with 16 points and Crowel with 9 were the high scorers.

BREMEN 33—NAPPANEE 42 Led by Carl Heckaman the Nappanee Bulldogs beat the Lions for their tenth straight defeat of the season. Bremen scoring honors were won by Crowel with 10 points, with Elliott close behind with 9 points.

BREMEN 31—PLYMOUTH 55 It was again Elliott and Crowel the high point men in the 55—31 defeat of the Lions. The two next highest scorers were Nichols and Peters with 4 points apiece.

(COUNTY TOURNEY) BREMEN 41—BOURBON 49 The Bourbon Comets found it hard to beat the fighting Lions who almost made the game victory No. 1. Led by Crowel with 11 points and Elliott and Arch with 9 the game was a thriller to the end.

BREMEN 44—CULVER 53 Trailing only 7 points each quarter the Lions failed to put together enough points to go around the sharp Indians. Crowel with 14 points again led the scoring followed closely by Elliott with 12 and Cardelino with 9.

BREMEN 36—WASHINGTON 62 It was defeat No. 14 for the Bremen Lions who trailed the whole game. Crowel and Elliott again led the scoring with 14 and 12 points respectively.

BREMEN 52—ARGOS 72 In a game with many interesting side-lights the Lions bowed to defeat No. 15 at the hands of the Marshall County Champions. Laudeman and Crowel led the scoring with 14 and 10 points apiece.

BREMEN 35—MADISON 46 In another close game the Lions were defeated by a 46—35 score. Crowel and Laudeman were high point men with 17 and 11 points respectively.

BREMEN 34—NAPPANEE 82 The Bulldogs had a very easy time beating the Lions 82 to 34 and making it loss No. 17. High point man for the game was Laudeman with 12 points.

BREMEN 38—MIDDLEBURY 67 The Lions never came close as the Middies dumped them by a 67 to 38 score. Drof with 18 points was high point man for the evening.

BREMEN 45—KNOX 74 Trailing by only 3 points at the end of the first quarter the Lions were soon lost in a flurry of points by the Redskins. In his final game of the regular season, Kenny Crowel was high point man with 20 points.

(SECTIONAL TOURNEY) BREMEN 39—LaPAZ 64 It was loss No. 20 for the Lions who bowed to a fighting LaPaz team. Schneider led the scoring with 10 points.

BASEBALL

The fall baseball season opened with a bang as the team was in fine shape. Shortstop Jay Senff took over the pitching duties after Crowel hurt his foot. Jay had good support behind him by trouncing the Bourbon nine 8—6 in our first game of the season. In Kenny's first game, he held the Lapaz boys to a one-hitter, but serious errors by everyone caused the final score to be 11—8. When Jay pitched the muddy game against Argos, the team was fighting for a chance at the Marshall County trophy. It was a close game but Argos was defeated, 3—2. Moving to Culver, the pitching duties were again turned over to the hard-luck pitcher, Kenny. He again lost a well-pitched game on a one-hitter; the score was 5—4. That game ended our hopes for the trophy and the team finished the season by edging West High, 9—3.
